

2004 eASIA Award

Shapes the Future in Asia!

AFACT Secretariat (Asia Pacific Council for Trade Facilitation and Electronic Business), one of the organizers of 2004 eASIA Week, has received 32 excellent projects from Australia, Chinese Taipei, India, Iran, Japan, Malaysia, Mongolia, Pakistan, and Singapore to compete in 2004 eASIA Award. There are 4 categories in the award: Trade Facilitation, Electronic Business in the Public Sector, Electronic Business in the Private Sector, and Bridging Digital Divide.

On August 26, 6 projects from each category will be selected to the final round of competition. The 24 semi-finalists will be invited to Taipei to present their projects in the final competition on September 24. 12 assessors from Australia, Chinese Taipei, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, Singapore, Thailand, United Kingdom, United States of America, and Vietnam are invited to evaluate the projects, and 3 winners from each category will be announced at the eASIA Award Ceremony & eASIA Night on September 24.
